Lent is coming up—fast! (Pun very much intended, sorry!) This Wednesday is Ash Wednesday, so just three days to go.

Before the liturgical calendar was revised in the 1960s the three Sundays before Lent were known as Septuagesima, Sexagesima and Quinquagesima—meaning the 70th, 60th and 50th day before the Easter Triduum—bad maths, but a good reminder of what was coming up. The first Sunday of Lent itself was Quadragesima—the 40th day before the Triduum (and the maths works for that one). However, with the current calendar Lent can sneak up on us unobserved, which is a pity because we may not have made any plans for getting closer to Jesus in this season.

Jesus Himself gives us the recipe: prayer, fasting and almsgiving (Matt 6:1-18). And He doesn't make it an option. He doesn't say, "If you fast ..." etc.; He says, "When you fast ...". He's our Lord and God. He knows what He's talking about. He loves us, and He longs for us to be even closer to Him. So let's take a bit of time out in the next few days to pray about Lent and make a plan. Two tips: (1) it's always best to choose something relatively small, humble and realistic—and stick to it—rather than aiming for the stars, and crashing out on day two; (2) never give up, even if you fail often—Jesus will never give up on you.

God bless, Fr Stephen

HCPT Group 154 writes: We are a volunteer-led pilgrimage group from across our Deanery and Diocese. This coming Easter week, we are privileged to be accompanying six students from St. Philip Howard Catholic Secondary School with additional needs on their pilgrimage to Lourdes. It is a unique opportunity for these young people to experience the joy of the Gospel and the message of St. Bernadette in a supportive, vibrant environment. To ensure this life-changing experience is accessible to all, we do not ask the children's families for any financial contribution and we cover the costs for our accompanying nurse and provide subsidies for our University student helpers. Because of this commitment, our group needs to raise approximately £20,000. There will be an appeal and collection on 7/8 March, please be as generous as you can with your donations and prayers for this endeavour.
