Joseph's life has changed. Yesterday he was just another Jewish man who loved God and kept His commandments, a man who celebrated God's saving acts in the history of Israel. Today he is part of those saving acts! Yesterday he saw himself, as it were, on the outside of God's works, looking in; today he knows he is on the inside, looking out. Yesterday his religion was a central part of his life; today his life is a central part of his religion. Yesterday God was part of his life; today God is the whole of his life. Joseph has grown in holiness.

Well, that's all fine and dandy for St Joseph, but hardly very relevant to us humbler mortals ... until we realise that God calls everyone to holiness, and indeed to the same total holiness as St Joseph.

It won't necessarily mean a radical change in our way of life (although for some it may). It didn't for Joseph—he remained a carpenter, he still took Mary to his home, he still led a family life. But it will mean our lives will be inwardly transformed. Joseph's work and family life were now quite literally all for God—for his divine foster-Son. And every action in our lives should now be a pure act of service of God, to sanctify ourselves, our families, friends, workplaces and the whole world.

God bless, Fr Stephen

Safeguarding Representative Storrington - We owe a huge debt of thanks to Theresa Byrne who has served as the Parish Safeguarding Representative in Storrington for many years and is now stepping down. We therefore need to find a replacement volunteer. The Parish Safeguarding Representative is responsible for: making sure the Parish is aware of the importance of safeguarding children and vulnerable adults; promoting good and safe practice, including what is appropriate and inappropriate behaviour; working with the Parish Priest and the Diocesan Safeguarding Co-ordinator in deciding how to administer the National Safeguarding Policies and Procedures within the Parish. Expressions of interest in the role to Fr Stephen or Deacon Roger. Thank you.

Two new parishes have been established this year; Brighton & Hove (14 September) and Guildford (29 November). Weybridge will be inaugurated on 7 December.
